Dear Sir:

We beg to advise you that the International Navigation Company's steamship "Belgenland" (Red Star Line), sailed from Antwerp for New York, December 31st, and is due to arrive here tomorrow.

This steamer has on board 10 first cabin, 45 second cabin, and 875 steerage passengers. All these passengers are either citizens of the United States or members of their immediate family; residents of the United States or members of their immediate family; visitors or tourists, and come within the classes of passengers permitted to land under the terms of the Treasury Department Circular No. 191, dated Washington, November 16th, 1892. None of these passengers are immigrants leaving their homes with the intention of permanently remaining and residing in the United States.

Yours respectfully,

James A. Wright Jr.

2nd. Vice President.

The "Belgenland" is for the present, the last steamer of the Red Star Line to bring steerage passengers & was so advertised for some weeks previous to her sailing. She brings also all the steerage passengers of the which had been booked for the "Illinois" (Red Star Line) which had been advertised to sail Dec. 28th but whose sailing was necessarily postponed. The "Illinois" will bring no steerage passengers.

Sir,

The S.S. "Gallia" left Liverpool Jan. 7th with 28 first class, 65 second class and 120 steerage passengers and is expected to arrive at this port Monday, 16th instant.

All of these passengers are, Citizens, their husbands, wives, children, parents or brothers and sisters - Residents, their husbands, wives, children, parents or brothers and sisters - Visitors, who intend to remain in the United States but a short period - affidavits to this effect are subscribed to, by each steerage passenger before embarkation, and to the best of our knowledge and belief none of them are immigrants as defined in Circular No. 191.

We would therefore ask that the "Gallia" be released by you after having been passed by the Health Officer of the Port.

Yours respectfully,

Wm H Brown & Co

Hon. Francis Hendricks,

Collector of the Port of New York.

Sir,

The S.S. "Etruria" left Liverpool Jan. 21st with 108 first class, 192 second class and 130 steerage passengers and is expected to arrive at this port to-day.

All of these passengers are, Citizens, their husbands, wives, children, parents or brothers and sisters - Residents, their husbands, wives, children, parents or brothers and sisters - Visitors, who intend to remain in the United States but a short period - affidavits to this effect are subscribed to, by each steerage passenger before embarkation, and to the best of our knowledge and belief none of them are immigrants as defined in Circular No. 191.

We would therefore ask that the "Etruria" be released by you after having been passed by the Health Officer of the Port.

Yours respectfully,

Wm. H. Brown

Vernon H. Brown & Co., Agents,

4 Bowling Green

New York, Feb. 4, 1893.

Hon. Francis Hendricks,

Collector of the Port of New York.

Sir,

The S.S. "Servia" left Liverpool Jan. 28th with 89 first-class, 184 second-class and 180 steerage passengers and is expected to arrive at this port to-morrow.

All of these passengers are, Citizens, their husbands, wives, children, parents or brothers and sisters - Residents, their husbands, wives, children, parents or brothers and sisters - Visitors, who intend to remain in the United States but a short period - affidavits to this effect are subscribed to, by each steerage passenger before embarkation, and to the best of our knowledge and belief none of them are immigrants as defined in Circular No. 191.

We would therefore ask that the "Servia" be released by you after having been passed by the Health Officer of the Port.

Yours respectfully,

Vernon H. Brown & Co.
